

Danny aged about 16 weeks

Grandson Booster aged about 6 weeks. A chip of the old block

Great Grandson Edgar aged 9 weeks.

Great granddaughter Fliss aged 15 weeks.

Carlas first litter at about 4 weeks.

Carlas first litter at about 4 weeks. All trying to pretend someone else did the wee!

Playing in the garden. Given the winter we endured, its a wonder they are still white in this picture.

Pups at 7 weeks trying to break out of the pen. At least one of them regularly climbed up the bars and we had to put a lid on to keep him in.

Two generations of puppy, Fliss from Carla's first litter at 18months with puppy Love (after the new owners name) at 7 weeks sharing her bed.

Merlin, one of the boy pups from Carla's second litter after beinb at his new home for a few weeks, What a handsome fella, Started his show career in October 2002.

All seven pups from Carla's second litter after returning from their check-up at the Vets before going to their new homes.

Sophie, one of the girls from Carla's second litter a few days after she went to her new home and doting 'father'.